NOESIS

NOESIS is a student-run creative arts magazine at Royal Oak High School. The magazine is published in the spring of every year, and is a magazine which exhibits the talent of the students throughout the high school in forms of written short stories, poetry, articles, as well as art forms of any medium.

ART DIRECTOR 2011-2012:
- Created cover and separating pages of book
- Consulted with editors over final layout of the book
- Final decisions on all artwork which was published
